About CIS

CIS is a study abroad provider who has worked with numerous universities for years to prepare, provide, and package affordable opportunities and experiences to “make you a part of the world and the world a part of you.” Our program locations are carefully selected to ensure that they are: interesting and easy to navigate; intellectually challenging and culturally stimulating; and most importantly, stable and safe.

In the words of Youmna Hinnawi, Director of Study Abroad at Suffolk University in Boston: “CIS has always been there for us. They are an invaluable resource and partner. I rely on them for their expertise in international education, their strong relationships with overseas universities, and their deep commitment to the students we serve.”

To learn more about the different program options please contact CIS (1-877-617-9090), visit www.studyabroad-cis.com, or stop by your study abroad office.

Dublin City University – Dublin, Ireland

Dublin City University is one of Ireland's youngest and most progressive universities. DCU is home to more than 10,000 students from all over the world. When it comes to teaching and learning you will find that DCU's academic system is loosely based upon the American system (unlike most other Irish universities) where you will have "continual assessment" rather than only having one or two projects/presentations decide your entire grade.

DCU recognises that University sport forms an integral part of the social and educational lives of the campus community and is committed to providing high quality sport and recreation opportunities. Within the walls of DCU sport lays the DCU Sports Academy with its focus on the elite athlete.

Trinity College Dublin — Dublin, Ireland

Trinity College is the oldest university in Ireland and it maintains a campus extending over 47 acres in a unique site in the heart of Dublin. The campus's west end includes five quadrangles of squares with many buildings from the 18th century, notably the Old Library - home to the priceless 8th century manuscript, The Book of Kells.

Sport has always played an important role in University life and here in Trinity we can now offer students, particularly incoming students, staff, graduates and our public members an extensive range of sports activities and facilities.

University of Limerick – Limerick, Ireland

The University of Limerick is located on a riverside campus at the heart of the 600-acre National Technological Park at Plassey, three miles above the ancient city of Limerick. Founded in 1972, Limerick has quickly gained a reputation among Irish universities for its innovatively designed courses as well as for its excellent academic standards. The University is home to some collections of fine Irish Art, the Irish Chamber Orchestra and the Irish World Music Center.

The University Arena, Ireland's largest sports complex and home to the National 50m swimming pool, offers an extensive range of facilities and services to both the campus community and the general public. Some of the superb facilities available include: 50m Swimming Pool; Aerobics Studio; Cardio Fitness Centre; Health Suite; Indoor Tracks; Sports Hall; and Wellness Centre.

University of Auckland – Auckland, New Zealand

Established in 1883, the University of Auckland is one of New Zealand's oldest and largest universities and is the country's leading research institution. While the University serves its 27,000 students on five campuses in and around Auckland, the City Campus is where study abroad students live and learn. This campus is set on park-like grounds near the center of the cosmopolitan city of Auckland, making it a haven from the city's center.

The Recreation Programme provides an inexpensive way to try a new sport or activity. Classes include racquet and ball sports, dance classes such as hip hop and salsa, martial arts like karate and Jiu Jitsu and extreme sports such as Kite Surfing and Jet Skiing. Campus Recreation runs a number of competitive and social sports leagues if you prefer team sports.

University of Otago – Dunedin, New Zealand

The University of Otago is New Zealand's first university, founded in 1869. Otago has earned an international reputation for the quality of its research and teaching and is one of those rare universities in the world where the main activity of its host city, Dunedin, is education. The campus itself is a short walk from the city's vibrant center. Otago is known for its research in the medical, biomedical, biological and natural sciences, the liberal arts and law.

Sport For Fun is based on a participation model, therefore it may differ from anything you have experienced in your high school days. It is a low cost alternative to playing club sport with less time commitments. Unipol specialises in the provision of recreational sport - we aim to make your experience a social and enjoyable one.
